We Love our Donors - Gifts Come in Many Forms

CASH

Gifts of cash provide Miami Rescue Mission/Broward Outreach Centers with much needed financial assistance. Outright gifts have an immediate impact on the needs of the people helped by Miami Rescue Mission/Broward Outreach Centers programs and services. To make a cash donation please use the enclosed reply piece and mark the area you wish your donation to be used.

APPRECIATED STOCKS

Gifts of long-term appreciated marketable stocks or securities to the Miami Rescue Mission/Broward Outreach Centers can help you save taxes twice. This type of gift will provide an income tax charitable deduction and capital gains tax savings.

PLANNED LEGACY GIFTS

Planned gifts are gift arrangements that have specific tax advantages and often include lifetime income to a beneficiary or beneficiaries named by the donor. Also a planned gift may be as simple as a bequest made through your will or living trust. Miami Rescue Mission /Broward Outreach Centers donors can utilize planned giving methods and can enjoy such income benefits today as capital gains and estate tax savings and increased income from their assets. A planned gift maximizes your giving potential and can even allow you to ensure your future financial security or that of a loved one. The Miami Rescue Mission /Broward Outreach Centers would be happy to assist you to learn more about making a planned legacy gift including bequest, retirement plan and life insurance gifts, and Life Income Gifts.

For assistance on any of the types of contributions that have been noted above, please contact the Donor Development Department at 305-571-2245 and ask to talk to Timothy Meadows.

EXPO ALFRESCO

The Greater Hollywood Chamber of Commerce held its 10th annual Expo Alfresco on May 18. The event took place on Harrison Street in downtown Hollywood. Hundreds of people visited for gourmet food, entertainment, and Hollywood's biggest trade fair. The goal of the Chamber is to represent local business interests and to promote quality of life for the people of Hollywood. Broward Outreach Center will receive a portion of the net proceeds and was also a participant at the event. Thanks to the many local restaurants, sponsors, and the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce for making this such a successful event. To find out more about the Chamber, visit their website at www.hollywoodchamber.org.

Fantastic Fashion Show

Right: Community Leader, Scott Roberts of Southeast Mortgage Company, and Melissa Witek, Miss Florida USA 2005, were emcees and provided colorful commentary.

The Friends of Broward Outreach Center Hollywood sponsored the 3rd annual Fashion Show on May 19th at the Hollywood Culture and Community Center. There was a silent auction, delicious food and beverages, entertainment, and surprises. Kids and adults showcased clothing provided by the city's most popular retail stores.

Contestants from the Miss Florida USA and Miss Teen USA also participated in the show. All proceeds will be used to enhance services to the homeless. The Friends of Broward Outreach Center wish to thank all of our many friends and supporters who donated their time, efforts, and gifts for this meaningful cause.

Oops! In the last issue, we incorrectly identified one of our great volunteer groups. Shirley Alcorn, President of Church Women United of South Broward (2nd from right) with Sally Durfey (right) donated $2000 dollars of new clothes. The group also plans for future projects to benefit residents in the Center.

Do you know that your support provides over 600,000 meals a year to the homeless and needy of Miami-Dade and Broward Counties? A good meal is often the first step on the road of recovery. During the summer months, we urgently need your help to continue these services. Please remember to send your gift today. □

God was showing me a way out...

I came home one day to find my 8-year old son crying. At first he wouldn't tell me, but finally I found out he had been fighting because another child said, "Your mom and dad are crack-heads." That was the first time I felt I really wanted to quit using drugs. I was a functioning addict.

Michael didn't understand then, but now he knows God started to show him a way out.

"I wasn't interested in any 'God stuff,' but He sent an angel to guide me to the Miami Rescue Mission. With crack, beer and cigarettes in my truck, I stopped at a fast food store to pick up some lunch. A man approached me and told me he knew what I needed. I drove to another one of their restaurants to get away from him.

Before I could get to the counter to place my order, that same man approached me again and told me he knew what I needed. He asked for a ride and wanted to be dropped off at the Rescue Mission. When we got there he asked me to come in and meet some of his friends.

While I was waiting in the Men's Center Chapel, I saw men down on their knees crying. I hadn't seen men crying before, so I asked one what was going on. He said he was at the end of his life, had tried all kinds of things to quit running and become a stable person and he knew now that God was the only answer.

Antwan and his father, Michael, have a great relationship.

At this point, all I wanted to do was get in my car and leave. The car wouldn't start and it had a flat tire. I went back in to ask for help and to look for the man who came in with me. The people inside said they saw only me, not the man who brought me there.

My head was spinning from what had happened, so I stayed and talked with the counselors. It began to dawn on me that I was at the Mission for a reason.

I stayed at the Mission and decided this 'God stuff' was what I had been looking for all along. I received the love and forgiveness of the Lord. Now I help families through my job with the Department of Children and Families. I have been the Volunteer Chaplain for several years at the Mission.

I believe the Lord sent one of His angels to bring me to the Mission. I am so thankful for all the changes in my life and my fantastic relationship with my son." □
